

Listed Church Refurbishment

Church of The Sacred Heart, New Priory, Quex Road, Kilburn, London NW6 4PS

Client: Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate

Architect: Brady Mallalieu Architects, Queens Drive, London N4

Value: £525,000

Contract period: 16 weeks

Notes:

The Church of the Sacred Heart in Kilburn is a lovely Pugin-designed grade 2 listed building. This contract is for the extensive refurbishment of the interior of the church, working in close liaison with the architect and client to complete the contract as quickly as possible. Work included stonework cleaning and repairs, complete redecoration to a high standard, installation of new floor finishes, new electrical wiring systems and new lighting. This is a church in constant use and this work is designed to bring the interior back to its original beauty together with the upgrading of the electrical systems and lighting to a high standard of efficiency and sympathetic design.
